

A CONFERENCE TO CHANGE THE WORLD?

20-21 Nov 2010, Edinburgh
Transitions diverse routes to belonging

Driving social change,
reclaiming our creative,
community based way
of living and learning
from different cultural perspectives.

BOOKING ESSENTIAL!

www.transitionscotland.org

This conference will offer a feast of fantastic opportunities to see how the range of movements currently driving social change to reclaim our creative, collaborative, place-based way of living can make alliances and work together. You will work with:

Rob Hopkins

sharing his latest thinking on pattern language and how it can be used as a powerful resource for change.

Serge Marti & Gemma Seth-Smith

on using film to work on climate change responses with indigenous peoples in Indonesia.

Knees Up

who help Londoners organise street parties as a way to build community.

Samuel Nnah & Justin Kenrick

on their work with grassroots groups in Cameroon who are working on community rights and resilience in the face of climate change.

Alistair McIntosh

on reconnecting with our own sense of being indigenous.

Moving Sounds

There will also be a 5-11 and 12-16 year olds programme from the fantastic Moving Sounds.

Tickets are available on a sliding price scale & accommodation priced to fit all budgets. Book at transitionsdiverseroutes.eventbrite.com. We look forward to welcoming you and hope you will arrive in time to join our ceilidh on the Friday evening.

The conference is hosted by Transition Scotland Support, Transition Network and Transition Edinburgh University. For further information about Transition Scotland Support visit www.transitionscotland.org.

 This flyer is printed on recycled paper

